S.E. Introduction to comparative education (2 créditos)
Dr Jaakko Kauko (University of Helsinki)

Objective
Students will be introduced to basic concepts and different theoretical starting points of comparative education, concentrating mainly on European and North American theories.

Lecture themes and required reading

1. What is comparison?
Defining basic concepts. Required reading: have a look of some of the mentioned background literature in Table 1.

2. Comparative theories I: borrowing and lending, world-systems analysis
Required reading, one of the following:

3. Comparative theories II: cross-cultural, post-colonialism, post-comparison
Required reading, one of the following:

4. Comparative theories III: complexity, critique, and the politics of comparison
Required reading:

5. Comparative Analytics of Dynamics in Education Politics (CADEP)
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Concepts</th>
<th>Examples of key literature</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

1 Available online: http://archive.org/stream/racehistory00levi/racehistory00levi_djvu.txt.